AN INTRODUCTION TO VILLAGE WINES

We are fully independent, family owned, wine merchants. As our existing customers are aware, we are constantly striving to offer diversity, choice and above all, value for money without compromising our quality. To advance this objective we deal, as much as possible on a personal basis, with independent winemakers who bring a welcome individuality to their wines and winemaking, often using organic practices. Many of the wines are imported directly by us, from small estates and vineyards that are not generally available through any major retail outlet. We like to think we are passionate about wine and this underlines our entire approach detailed product knowledge, jargon free advice and personal service. This may seem a novel approach in the world of modern retailing but we like to think it makes a difference to you, the customer.

FRENCH WINES

EVERY DAY DRINKING WINES

SV = Single Vineyard DB = Domaine Bottled

Anyone who does the sums involved in bottling, freight, insurance and duty on the one hand and the cost of wine on the other steers well clear of the lower end of the bargain basement. A poor wine is dear at any price. We have been very careful to choose a range of wines suitable for every day drinking that justify their prices, meet a consistent high quality and are representative of their region.

The three wines from Claude Serra (nos: 003, 011 and 019) are of particular interest. When we first encountered these wines we were very impressed with the quality and what great value for money they were. It came as no great surprise to learn that Claude Serra, the winemaker, has been a professor at the Montpellier University of Oenology for more than 15 years and is something of an eminence in the Languedoc. Whilst Claude has trained many of the "Rising Stars" of this region most of his energies are devoted to the pursuit of excellence of his own value for money range of wines.

LOIRE

The stylish white wines of the Loire Valley are well known for their excellent qualities. The Sancerre from DOMAINE CHERRIER (No. 036) and the Pouilly-Fume from DOMAINE CEDRICK BARDIN (No. 038) are prime examples of what this region can achieve at its best.

FINE BORDEAUX WINES

This range of wines reflects, we believe, the outstanding quality and value for money that only direct importing of Chateau Bottled wines can achieve. Many of the chateaux are small family run vineyards where great care has been taken to create high quality complex wines typical of their Appellation. Further to this we have included in our range a selection of Grand Cru Classe and value for money 2nd wines. Often the only difference between the 1st and second wines produced by a Grand Cru Classe Chateau is the age of the vines, in some instances it is a separate property under the same ownership. We have been fortunate to have been able to have secured some older interesting vintages. It is very important to us to capture the individual styles of the many small regions that collectively make up Bordeaux. This individuality is almost impossible to achieve when dealing with a co-operative or large producer.

As ever there seems to be no inexpensive route into red Burgundy, even the lesser negociant wines carry heavy price tags. This includes wines from little known regions where value for money can be found.

BEAUJOLAIS CRU RED A.O.C.

SV = Single Vineyard DB = Domaine Bottled

Domaine Tracot has been in the Dubost family since 1902. Today Jean-Paul Dubost, together with his sons, carries on the tradition of producing some of the finest of wines of their region. The estate totals around 22 hectares incorporating small parcels of land in the Cru Beaujolais appellations of Fleurie, Brouilly and Morgon. Organic farming is very much a theme of the vineyard, where a modern winery goes hand in hand with traditional winemaking. The aim to produce wines that express the best qualities of the Gamay Grape.

VAUCLUSE DOMAINE DE LA ROYERE

From her chic appearance and quietly spoken manner, it is easier to imagine Anne Hugues owner of Domaine de la Royere in her former guise of museum curator than vigneron. Focusing on blends of traditional grape varieties such as Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre, Anne's philosophy is simple; low yields equal concentration of flavour. Concentration of flavour is very much the style of the Domaine, this combined with the very high quality of wine making has led to many accolades from the likes of Decanter Magazine. We were certainly amazed to find that these wines were not already imported into the U.K. and were very glad that we had found Anne first.

The Chateau Husson wine estate was purchased in 2008 by Anne Hugues (see Page 4 our lady in the Luberon Domaine de la Royere). Serious investment and modernization in both the vineyard and the cellars together with the high quality of soil and aspect of the estate, has resulted in Chateau Husson producing intense Cote Du Rhone and Chateauneuf Du Pape of the highest calibre.

COTEAUX DU LANGUEDOC - DOMAINE DE LA PROVENQUIERE PAYS D'OC

As soon as we tried the wines from this 15th century Chateau, located at Capeatang, near Beziers in the heart of the Languedoc, we knew we were on to a winner. GAILLAC- LES VIGNOBLES ALAIN GAYREL VIGNE LOURAC A.O.C. & COTES DU TARN

It all began when Alain Gayrel's grandfather bought the estate of Vigné-Lourac around 1900. Since then, a lot of water has flowed under the bridge, or rather wine. On the right bank of the river Tarn, on the side of Cahuzac-sur-Vère, the Vigné-Lourac castle, from where the estate takes it's name, dominates the sky line. Along side grape varieties such as Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Sauvignon Blanc, the vineyard produces an interesting selection of local grapes. Duras and Braucol for the reds and Mauzac for the white. They will appeal to all those who like freshness and fruit in their wine. A real taste of summer.

METHODE TRADITIONELLE SPARKLING WINES A.O.C.

Methode Traditionelle is made in the same complex manner as Champagne (The bubbles ferment naturally in the bottle, not in the vat). By law, Champagne can only come from the small Champagne region. This wine, however, is produced in the Loire Valley, only 200 km to the west of Champagne, both regions sharing a very similar micro-climate. Quality wine it is. Champagne in everything but name and, of course price.

WEINGUT ALFONS SEBASTIANI (Village Wines Sole UK Importers)

*There are many German wines on the market and most of them serve as an excellent introduction to the joys of wine drinking, being light and fruity but nothing more. What is not generally appreciated is that Germany also produces fine wines and, with a few exceptions, these are hard to come by. We are fortunate to have discovered a range of wines produced by the Sebastiani family at Mehding, which is between Berncastel and Trier on the Mosel. The Sebastianis own approximately 10 acres of vineyards. They sell only wine from these vineyards many of which are dry in style. The care that they take and the experience that they have gained since 1300, when their family first settled in Mehding is reflected in the magnificent wines they produce. Remember we do not choose our German wines on price, but recommend them on quality.

WEINKELLER LEININGERLAND – GRUNSTADT (Village Wines Sole UK Importers)

Only 12% of German Wine production is red, and this is generally consumed by the domestic market. Red German wine has become something of a specialist field for Village Wines. We have been very fortunate to have found Weinkeller Leiningerland, a small award winning winery situated just outside of Heidelberg. The grapes used mainly are Dornfelder and Spatburgunder, (the German version of the Burgundy grape Pinot Noir) producing wines that are refreshing, often light and show more of a medium fruity than tannic acidity.

Pedro Ximenez grapes were first grown in the area of Malaga. Only later were they introduced into the neighbouring sherry area of Jerez. This winery, one of the finest in Malaga, was founded at the end of the 19th century. Today the Bodegas works with the latest technology, still producing wines of unrivalled quality and style and still using the old fashion method of sun drying the grapes to concentrate the sugars. This wine, fortified in the same way as Sherry, has intense rich sweet flavours, elegant, with a velvety finish.

PORTUGUESE WINES

We are pleased to announce that we have strengthened our selection of vintage Ports and now have an interesting range dating back to 1994. Of the undeclared Ports listed, the traditional late bottled vintage, Warre's (No. 569) deserves a special mention. This is a class wine of a good single year aged in bottle to crust. The vintage port from the single vineyards of Bomfim, owned by Dows (No. 570) offers exceptional value for money.

John Blandy first set foot in Madeira in 1807, when, as a 23 year old soldier he was posted to the island. As a quartermaster the young John Blandy came into contact with local wine merchants and it was from here that his interest in wine began. He was to return in 1811 to found the company that still bears his name.
